- A. 14 “For thus says the LORD of hosts (the Father).
1. ‘Just as I purposed to do harm to you (Israel)
 - a. when your fathers (Israel’s) provoked Me to wrath,’ says the LORD of hosts,
 - i. ‘and I have not relented (in doing harm),
- B. 15 so I (the LORD) have again purposed in these days
1. to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.
 2. Do not fear!
- C. 16 ‘These are the things which you should do:
1. speak the truth to one another;
 2. judge with truth and
 3. judgment for (make) peace in your gates.
4. 17 ‘Also let none of you devise evil in your heart against another,
5. and do not love perjury (lie under oath);
 - a. for (Because) all these (things) are what I hate,’ declares the LORD.”

Your Fasts will be turned to Joy and Feasts, All Nations will seek the Lord

The TIME is still Dec 7th, 518 BC, and Ezra’s Temple is still under construction, until 515 BC.

In Zech 7:11-14, the Lord spoke of His Judgement on Israel,

But In Zech 8:1-8 He speaks of Blessing and in Zech 8:14–17, The LORD, will purpose to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.

The LORD waited till now to answer the question raised by the Bethel delegates (7:2–3) about the commemorative 4 fasts they had been doing for the last 70 years. Commemorating the siege and capture of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar. These fasts are still observed by some Jews today. But at the Lord’s Second Coming these fasts will be turned into feasts, as part of Joy in the Millennium. See Study on Zech 7
